Instructors: Nick Hudson and Dale McGinley

Email: nhudson@mail.kana.k12.wv.us / dmcginley@mail.kana.k12.wv.us

Location: Room 102 / Room100

Course Information: English 11 is a survey course which focuses on American literature but also incorporates other works from around the world. The course will be taught by Mr. Hudson and Mrs. McGinley, and students will rotate between the two on three-week intervals.

Summer Reading: All students should have a copy of the novel ready for the first day of class. Any student who would like to borrow a school copy should email Mr. Hudson before school begins to ensure that a copy is made available at the beginning of the course.

Novel: The Murder of Roger Ackroyd by Agatha Christie

A full syllabus will be provided at the beginning of the course.

Kanawha County Schools
Request for Alternative Reading Assignment

Dear Parent,

The books on our reading list will be given to your child as part of the requirements for his/her English 11 class. We will begin the year with The Murder of Roger Ackroyd and students should bring a copy on the first day of school. If you are unable to purchase one, please email me, and I will provide a copy.

While we believe these assignments to be of educational benefit and value to your child, portions of the books may be objectionable due to:

Sexual Content Violence
 Adult Situations Profane Language

All books on this list have been deemed appropriate for students at this level of education and maturity. However, the books may contain elements of profane language, violence, sexual content, and adult situations (L, V, S, A) in varying degrees. Parents should consult the individual books directly to decide the suitability of each for their own student.

If you wish to request an alternative reading assignment for your child, please complete the bottom portion of this form and return it to the school principal within the first week of school.

Sincerely,
Nick Hudson and Dale McGinley
